Shower Is Held in Honor of Woman

MRS. A. W. KETTER and Mrs. J. C. Ketter entertained a delightful bridge party last evening at the home of Mrs. Ketter at 234 Jerome avenue, honoring Mrs. Raymond E. Fletcher who will leave soon to join Mr. Fletcher in Portsmouth.

Tulips and lilies of the valley were added a colorful note to the room where four tables were filled for bridge and bowls of delicious refreshments were served. The tables were decorated with flowers and the room was decorated with a hand-painted shower by the guests and also was presented a gift from the guests. Awards for bridge were presented Mrs. Fred Wadsworth and Mrs. Edwin Thoms and Mrs. James Turner was crowned.

Guests from out of the city included Mrs. Robert Gemmel and Mrs. Roy Scott of Kenton.

RESTFUL SLEEP
for FRETFUL,
FEVERISH CHILD

—With Castoria's regulation

When your child tosses and cries out of his sleep it means he is not comfortable. Very often the trouble is that poisonous waste matter is not being carried off as it should be. Bowels need help—mild gentle help—most effective. Just the kind Castoria gives. Castoria is a pure vegetable preparation made especially for children's ailments. It contains no harsh, harmful drugs, no narcotics. Don't let your child's rest—and your own—be interrupted. A prompt dose of Castoria will urge stubborn little bowels to act. Then relaxed comfort and restful sleep! Genuine Castoria always has the name.

"ROMAN" AND NEW DAUGHTER

As a reward for 12 years of faithful service, during which time she handled all his affairs on occasion when he was incapacitated through illness, William Muldoon, 27-year-old boxing commissioner of New York, has adopted his 4-year-old secretary, Miss Margaret Farrell, and made her his heir to his wealth which includes his famous health farm at Purchase, N. Y. Muldoon was once a wrestling champion and boxer. He is shown with Miss Farrell.

Girl Reserves Give Party for Mothers at North Main School

GIRLS RESERVES of the North Main Street school entertained their mothers at a Mothers' day party yesterday afternoon at the school building. About 30 guests turned the party which was one of the most delightful of the school year. The room including the stage set for the presentation of a play was decorated with bouquets of lilacs and tulips. A color effort in blue and white the girls reserve colors was carried out in the decoration of the long table arranged for the refreshments served during the social hour and the word Mother was inscribed in blue on the long cream which was inscribed in white squares. The address of welcome was given by Ruth Roland and Ann Mae O'Donnell and Virginia. It was entertained with two piano duets, Adonia Glad, Streibing, and D. Provost. Verdi's "Ave Maria" was sung by the mothers. The guests were entertained with a play, "Wanted a Mother."

The play was directed by Miss Linda McMahon one of the group who sang. Photos taken by the girls. Mrs. Drake, Anna Mae O'Donnell, Marie Weston, Mary Hamilton, Marjorie Eberhart, Virginia Lyon, Vivian Mason, Margaret Steinman, Pauline Reiff, Father Coffey, Arlin Depelot, Debra Wilson, Lida Hutchinson, Beatrice Sisson and Violet Lee. while she unpacked his belongings
Mrs. Bigger a good sport
she thought you think first must be thoroughly had tempered
the most of the most amiable people live ever met. Do you think you'll find your handkerchief if I put them in this drawer?

On a girl would fuss with all of her things at all said Eddie drowsily. Much simpler never to unpack anything than you can all ways find it.

He was lying on the narrow bed
his hands behind his head. His eyes closed. He had been pushed and persuaded into Mrs. Bigger's in a pit of state of nerves but the sight of his future landlady had leaked him that he had thrown aside his sea and followed he quite naturally up the stairs to the room he was to occupy. Mrs. Bigger had seen enough not to cate-chize him about his accident. She promised to come up later when he had had a nice snatch of sleep and lead to him from the Sunday

paper and rather to Jenny's pique he had grinned and agreed.

I like the old homestead. He remarked when she had gone. "I don't get me all mixed up like those doctors and nurses did. I river coast and hospitals. Mrs.
Bigger will suit me down to the ground. I refuse and you'll be there with you—when I have to go out between the two of you I shall do fine.

It came back this afternoon of this evening she promised. She said she had not mentioned George again. It was perhaps a little that she must be mentioned at all. But there was no choice.

If George stays on with Mr.
Marshall, she began reluctantly,
she will have to take care that he doesn't hear that she is married. We shall all have to take care to keep it secret. You'll take care too won't you Eddie?

Personally I'm going to let people say and think anything
rather than tell them the truth.
he added firmly. You must back me up because you can never know what may not come to Mr. Marshall's ears. At any rate—as he still made no kind of response—
until George comes home and you can discuss things with her.

She waited for a moment but there was neither word nor sign.
Was he really asleep? No she was sure he could hear her. She sighed and quietly opened the door. She had a great longing to get out of the bare little room with its coarse lace curtains—out into the air.

Jenny. The call came just as she was over the threshold.
I hate to bother you about any thing, she protested returning to his side. But George made me see that it's most frightfully important that—

All right kid. I'll remember.
I'll talk any darn nonsense anybody likes. I'll begin by telling Mrs. Bigger that I've got three wives already. Go on you buzz off. I'm sleepy again. Anyway I've got plenty to think about.

She left him to it. In spite of his nonchalance she knew he was hurt and bewildered and lonely. So often she had herself been all these things that she knew how he longed to be alone.

She had a final word with Mrs.
Bigger then crossed the road to the hotel and there paid her bill
and collected her few possessions.
As she was leaving the clerk called her attention to a note which had been left for her by her special messenger shortly after she had left that morning.

She opened it. She did not need to look at the signature to read that it was from Garth Avenue.
He had just the writing she would have imagined for him. Big sprawling and yet orderly.

I feel sure you didn't really expect me to keep our appointment
this morning. Fortunately for me
I heard that you were expected elsewhere. And as to tell you the truth was I—

She started at it read it again
then tore it into small pieces. "Expected elsewhere?" The words conveyed nothing to her. Perhaps they were not meant to. When a man cut an appointment with a girl
simply because he could not stand being in her company it hardly mattered what excuse he sent.

She took her way through the door to the apartment. Perpetually she seemed to journey on and on along those hot streets.

LOUGHRAN BOWS TO CRUSHING FISTS OF YOUNG STEVE HAMAS

However, Philadelphia Demonstration He Is Not Through as Fighter.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—There were few to assert that Tommy Loughran was through with the league today, although he had bowed a second time beneath the punishing fists of Young Steve Hamas.

The 37-year-old Philadelphia fighter, trying to come back to the heavyweight height from which he tumbled last winter and he thought he had won the 19-round bout which went to Hamas by a 2 to 1 decision in 11.

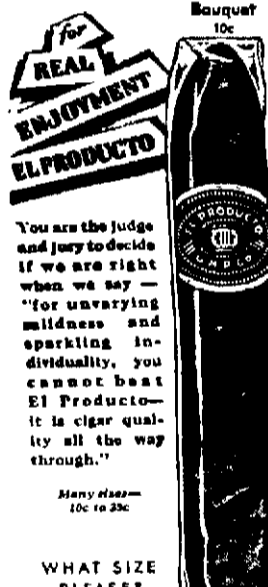

The partisans declared his performance demonstrated that he still could swing, that he still was clever, and that he might have been a fluke by which Hamas knocked him out last January.

The 25-year-old Penn State letterman tried for Loughran's body throughout the bout but the veteran kept him away with his left. Hamas got across several damaging blows to the jaw.

Two rounds contained most of the action. A wild rally started in the fourth when Loughran put Hamas who clipped Loughran on the jaw making the Philadelphia-knee buckle. Hamas then backed him against the ropes to press his advantage. But Loughran rolled with the punches and weathered the storm.

In the final round both threw caution away and tried for a knockout. Hamas landed first with rights to Loughran's jaw but Tommy clinched and in a moment returned a right to Hamas' left eye, partly closing it.

Five A. A. Clubs Battle for Top in Hectic Race

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, May 12.—Struggle for the American Association flag is getting to look like anybody's race now and more every day.

With the race just one month old today, five clubs were in the thick of the battle. Only three full games separated the first place Indianapolis Club from the fifth place Red Birds from Columbus.

DOG MASCOT RIDES WITH DAREDEVIL

These are dog days at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway where famous drivers are preparing for the Twentieth International 500-mile race to be held May 30.

"Goggles," a canine pet, likes to ride the course at high speed. Here he is shown with Ernie Triplett, high riding speedster, who will compete in the coming Indianapolis event.

FOUR GAMES BILLED TODAY AS STARTER FOR INDUS CIRCUIT

Weather Conditions Over Little Assurance Tilt Will Be Played as Booked.

Unless rain interferes, a scheduled order of events for industrial softball league will be the lid off the 1932 season with a quartet of battles in the opening days of the season.

The top notch game of the day will be the fracas between the Steam Shovel A. C. and the U. D. M. at the St. Paul in another tilt. Hap Appleton's Bob Gamble will have the prize choice of the Shoreline.

The Steam Shovel A. C. will tackle the 1931 league champion U. D. M. at the St. Paul in another tilt. Hap Appleton's Bob Gamble will have the prize choice of the Shoreline.

ACKNOWLEDGING THE TRUTH

—A STATEMENT BY THE GILLETTE SAFETY RAZOR COMPANY

THE Gillette Safety Razor Company feels called upon to make a confession and a statement that are undoubtedly unique in the annals of American business. We want to tell you frankly what actually happened when we introduced a new Gillette razor and blade.

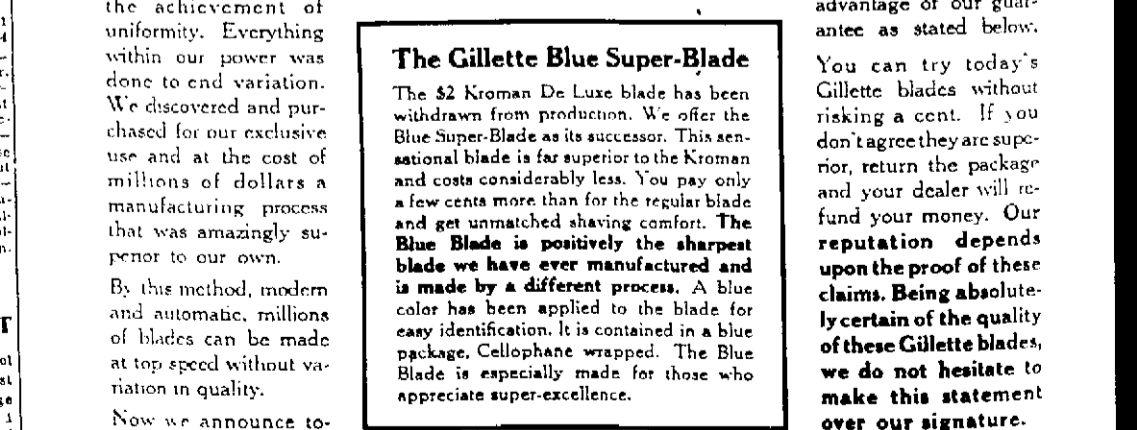

Soon after this was done, we found that, although the great majority was pleased, some users complained quality was not up to standard.

We learned why. Our equipment had not been equal to the task of producing millions of blades at high speed without a certain variation in quality that affected a small portion of our output. As a result some blades that left the factory were not as good as you had a right to expect. Immediately we directed our principal effort toward the achievement of uniformity. Everything within our power was done to end variation.

We discovered and purchased for our exclusive use and at the cost of millions of dollars a manufacturing process that was amazingly superior to our own.

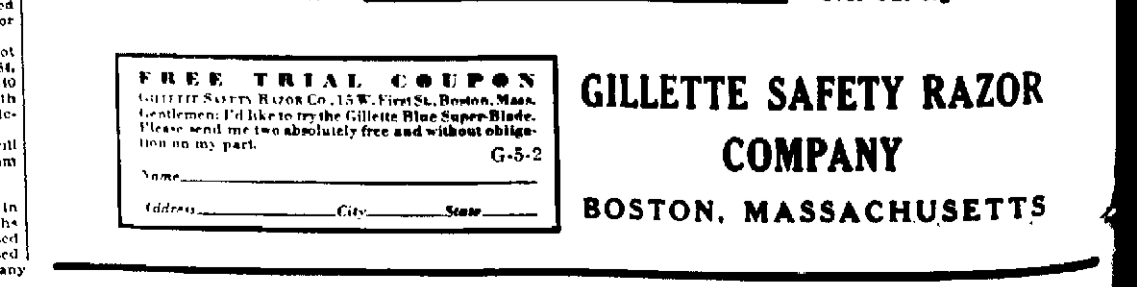

By this method, modern and automatic, millions of blades can be made at top speed without variation in quality.

Now we announce to

The Gillette Blue Super-Blade

The $2 Kroman De Luxe blade has been withdrawn from production. We offer the Blue Super-Blade as its successor. This sensational blade is far superior to the Kroman and costs considerably less. You pay only a few cents more than for the regular blade and get unmatched shaving comfort. The Blue Blade is positively the sharpest blade we have ever manufactured and is made by a different process. A blue color has been applied to the blade for easy identification. It is contained in a blue package, cellophane wrapped. The Blue Blade is especially made for those who appreciate super-excellence.

RAYL CLASS MAKES SPRING RALLY PLANS

Attendance Goal Set at 180; Program Given at Meeting.

Plans were made for a spring rally the first Sunday in June at the meeting of the Rayl class of Trinity Baptist Sunday school Tuesday night. The class attendance goal for that day is 180.

Mrs. Roy Adams' group with Mrs. Roy Beadles as chairman presided for the program. Mrs. Bernice LeMaster and George Wingett sang a duet accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Gorman and Mr. Gorman. Mrs. Wingett entertained with a vocal number with the piano accompaniment played by Miss LeMaster. Milton Baker, accompanied by Mrs. W. A. Baker and Miss Ethel Fay Lecker, entertained with vocal solos and piano numbers were contributed by Miss Bernice LeMaster and Miss Marion Baker.

A check talk by Mrs. Hayes Holcomb, with vocal accompaniment by Mrs. George LeMaster and George Wingett closed the program hour.

Mrs. A. H. Marks' group with Mrs. Stephen Hart as chairman, presided for the program. Mrs. F. H. LeMaster was in charge of the social hour.

Don't let them count you out!

It's great to feel well... that's why I am so cheerful... I have a good appetite... sleep soundly... and feel like doing my work or enjoying play.

I never let a "run-down" condition get the best of me. When I am troubled by nervousness, quick fatigue, lack of strength, loss of appetite, pimples or boils I immediately start taking S.S.S. It is really a wonderful tonic... and then its regeneration of the red-blood cells and hemoglobin it isn't long before I feel like myself again!

S.S.S. builds sturdy health

Don't let them count you out!

Try it yourself. Get S.S.S. from any drug store. In two sizes: regular and double—the latter is more economical and is sufficient for a two weeks' treatment.

Scoffs at Charges of Mrs. McLean, To Be Arraigned Friday.

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, May 12.—The city once again is the scene of a sensational trial. The defense of the kidnapped child, Mrs. McLean, is being prepared by her attorney, who is expected to arrive in the city on Friday.

John McLean, the father of the child, is expected to arrive in the city on Friday. He is expected to be arraigned on charges of kidnapping and harboring a fugitive.

Out of jail, Mrs. McLean is expected to be arraigned on charges of kidnapping and harboring a fugitive. She is expected to be arraigned on Friday.

Then he told her he got into the McLean household and had been there for some time. He is expected to be arraigned on Friday.

GIRL HURT AS AUTO SKIDS AGAINST CURB

Catherine Wedertz, 17, Harding Senior Thrown Through Window

Miss Catherine Wedertz, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Wedertz, of 6415 East Avenue, sustained deep cuts on her right arm and back from flying glass when the car in which she was riding, with Miss Annelle E. Fennell and her brother Kenneth, was struck by a car on East Avenue, after skidding on the curb. The car turned around and crashed against the curb, throwing Miss Wedertz through a window. The injured girl was taken to the Landon hospital where a physician dressed her injuries. She was moved to her home on East Avenue this morning. She is a member of the Senior class of Harding High School.

Hemorrhoid Sufferers

Find Your Life Miserable? Your itching, bleeding, painful hemorrhoids will go when you actually remove the cause—had blood circulation in the weak flabby parts—and not one minute before. Salve or cutting can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. HEMORRHOID prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonard succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, and relieves the most distressing parts. HEMORRHOID has a wonderful record in this city. That's why HEMORRHOID cooperates with your pill and your ointment.
